

I want to express my appreciation for closed television captioning. It is a wonderful blessing for me. My only wish is that it be expanded, particularly on local news specials. I find it ironic that every once in a while, there will be an uncaptioned program of particular benefit to people with a hearing loss.